GR8 Conference Europe 2010 2010.01 -
 GR8 conferences are a series of developer-driven conferences, covering Groovy, Grails, Griffon and other great technologies. The idea for the conference was conceived by Guillaume Laforge and I in early 2009.

The first edition was held in Copenhagen with great success: over 100 attendees from 17 countries. Currently there are two GR8 conferences in the making: GR8 in the US, and GR8 Conference Europe 2010, for which I am the primary organizer.

Highlight of tasks performed:

- Conference website: (eu.gr8conf.org)

- Architecture
- Developed in Grails
- Ajax / jQuery
- RESTfull services for iPhone webapp
- Grails plugin development (jQueryUI plugin).
- CloudFoundry deployment
- Conference planing
 - Venue booking
 - Speaker contact
